Hanna Eshel Marble Sculpture

Italy, 1970s

32 x 5 x 5

$9500

Untitled Carrara marble sculpture by Israeli-American artist Hanna Eshel (b. 1926). Eshel is a multi-disciplinary artist best known for her work in carved marble—a skill she honed from 1972-1978 while living and practicing in Carrara, Italy. In 1978, Eshel relocated to New York City with 20,000 pounds of sculpture, including this piece.
