

Patrick Parrish
50 Lispenard Street
New York, NY 10013
T 212 219 9244
info@patrickparrish.com

Hanna Eshel Marble Sculpture

Italy, 1970s

Dimensions Variable

$2800

Untitled, kinetic Carrara marble sculpture by Israeli-American artist Hanna Eshel (b. 1926). Eshel is a multi-disciplinary artist best known for her work in carved marble—a skill she honed from 1972-1978 while living and practicing in Carrara, Italy. In 1978, Eshel relocated to New York City with 20,000 pounds of sculpture, including this work.

Dims: 4.75 x 4.5 x 2.5 each piece; 6 pieces total.