

Patrick Parrish
50 Lispenard Street
New York, NY 10013
T 212 219 9244
info@patrickparrish.com

Hanna Eshel Marble Sculpture

Italy, 1970's

11 x 9 x 9 , 14 x 9 x 8

$5800

Grey Bardiglio marble sculpture by Israeli-American artist Hanna Eshel (b. 1926). Carved in Carrara, Italy. Eshel is a multi-disciplinary artist best known for her work in carved marble—a skill she honed from 1972-1978 while living and practicing in Carrara, Italy—as well as her dimensional burlap paintings. In 1978, Eshel relocated to New York City with 20,000 pounds of sculpture, including this piece.