1 In a classic combination of blue and white, these beautiful Moroccan ceramic tiles by Habibi Interiors are hand decorated and available in a huge variety of patterns. Behind a hob, a sink or in a bathroom, they are a timeless design. 20cm x 20cm. £22 for four. habibi-interiors.com 2 From one of Portugal's most famous ceramics producers, Vista Alegre, the Mariinsky Joker vase is playful and colourful. 37cm. £313. vistaalegre.com 3 This charming blue earthenware Rimini Blu cat figure from the Italian producer Bitossi Ceramiche has a retro 1960s feel to it and would be ideal to fill an empty corner. 33cm. £137. amara.com 4 The painterly brush strokes on this hand-crafted vessel, by Cody Hoyt for the Patrick Parrish gallery in New York, are joyful and intriguing. 60cm. £5,075. patrickparrish.com 5 Created in his Devon workshop, the versatile 70cl splash glaze jug by Michael Taylor would look just as good filled with a flower arrangement or with cream for pouring. £32. davidmellordesign.com 6 The elegant porcelain Kyklos collection from Greek lifestyle brand Themis Z is a stunning combination of traditional Grecian geometric patterns and fluid lines. The designer Themis Zouganeli takes inspiration from her home in Athens and summers spent on Mykonos. From £36. themisz.com 1
